Once your application to become a Certified Master Inspector® is approved:

There are several ways to tout your Certified Master Inspector® professional designation. Some examples of the many permitted uses of the trademarked professional designation include:

- I am a Certified Master Inspector®, have completed more than 1,000 inspections and/or hours of Continuing Education, have been in business for more than three years, abide by the Master Inspector Certification Board's strict Code of Ethics, and have agreed to a criminal background check.
- I am listed as a Certified Master Inspector® by the Master Inspector Certification Board at www.CertifiedMasterInspector.org
- I am a Board-Certified inspector.

Only the best.

- Certified Master Inspectors (CMIs)[®] are the best inspectors in the world.
- CMI is a professional designation available to all qualifying inspectors who wish to become Board-Certified by the Master Inspector Certification Board.
- All CMIs are experienced, dedicated to education, and have a proven record in the inspection industry.

Educated.

All CMIs have completed professional education prior to being approved.

The Best.

Not everyone can become a Certified Master Inspector[®]. Hiring a CMI means hiring the best.
